

12.10.2025

Visit
Poznań

Poznań Marathon

The 24th Poznań Marathon
Sunday, 12 October 2025

The run will take place on 12 October 2025 in Poznań. It will start at ul. Grunwaldzka (at the Poznań International Fair Ltd.) and finish at the Poznań International Fair Ltd. (St. Mark's Square). The run will be held under the patronage of the Mayor of the City of Poznań.

About marathon's patron
Maciej Frankiewicz

Maciej Frankiewicz, a former deputy mayor of Poznań, apart from his hard work on making Poznań a prosperous city, had a huge impact on progress of Poznań sport.

Accommodation

Hotel Camping Malta

Krańcowa Street 98, 61-036 Poznań

campingmalta.poznan.pl

- Accommodation in single bungalows with breakfast – about 55 €
- Accommodation in 2-person standard bungalows with breakfast – about 76 €
- Accommodation in 2-person VIP bungalows (bedroom + living room) with breakfast – about 84 €
- The given prices are gross prices.

Hotel Gołęcin

Warmińska Street 1, 60-622 Poznań

golecin.poznan.pl/noclegi/

- Single room – about 55 €
- Double room – about 38 €
- Suite – about 53 €

Don't wait

It is worth signing up as soon as possible. The price of the race packet will gradually increase according to the calendar below:

- from March 11 to June 30 – about 55 €,
- from July 1 to September 1 – about 60 €,
- from September 2 to October 9 – about 65 €,
- on October 10 and 11 – about 72 €.

More information

marathon.poznan.pl/en/

marathon.poznan.pl/en/runners-zone/faq/

Scan me

Run

Malta Thermal Baths

The Cathedral

Poznań's New Zoo

Porta Posnania

The Round House "Okraglak"

Imperial Castle

Poznań International Fair

The Old Brewery

The Municipal Stadium

By participating in the Poznań Marathon you can explore the city while running.

Taste

Poznań delights with its diverse culinary scene, seamlessly blending tradition with modern trends. The city is bursting with flavors – from classic Greater Poland specialties and creative signature cuisine to exotic inspirations from around the world.

Rogale Świątomarcińskie

St. Martin's croissant with a white poppy seed filling, traditionally prepared in Poznań for St. Martin's Day (November 11).

Kaczka po poznańsku and Gęsiina

Poznań-style duck is a roasted duck served with red cabbage, yeast buns called "pyzy" and apples. Goose is another traditional dish, typically served in autumn and winter.

Pyzy

Traditional Poznań dish - steamed yeast dumplings called "Pyzy", served either savory with meat or sweet.

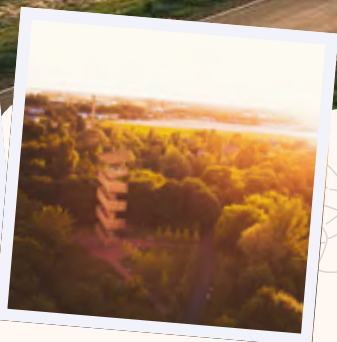

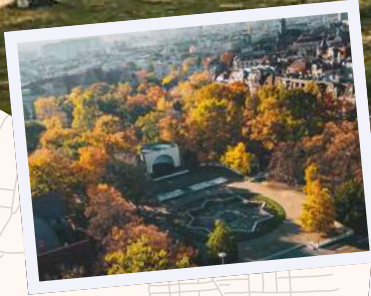

Pyry z gzikiem

Potatoes, most traditionally eaten as jacket potatoes, served with "gzik" or "gzika" - cottage cheese mixed with cream and chopped onions.

Brzdąc

A classic cake with two layers of sponge cake filled and topped with chocolate cream, usually decorated with fork-made wave patterns.

Enjoy

- Geographical location - located exactly halfway along the route connecting Berlin and Warsaw, Poznań is a key intersection for national and international roads.
- Compact city - what distinguishes Poznań from other European metropolises is its compactness.
- Hotel base - Poznań offers a wide range of accommodation options in every price category.
- Public transport - Poznań has an extensive public transport network, including tram and bus lines operated by modern rolling stock.
- Gastronomy - Poznań is a city that successfully aspires to be the culinary capital of Poland. There are over five hundred dining establishments here, and their number is constantly changing.
- Sport - in Poznań you can find many opportunities for active recreation.

Attractions

The Malta Lake Traveler

One of the most famous canoeing and rowing tracks in the world. Around the lake you can find activities such as hiking and cycling paths, mini-golf and a ski slope.

Malta Thermal Baths termymaltanskie.com.pl

The complex features 18 sports and recreational swimming pools, thermal water pools and an aqua park with numerous attractions.

Poznan's New Zoo zoo.poznan.pl

A vast zoological garden (over 120 ha). Nearly 3,5 thousand animals live here in conditions that resemble their natural habitats as closely as possible.

Old Market Square mnp.art.pl

The Renaissance gem from the 16th century. Every day at noon two mechanical goats appear on the tower, butting heads 12 times.

Wolności Square poznan.pl

The Freedom Square's most recognizable landmark is Fontanna Wolności (the Fountain of freedom)

Kolegiacki Square poznan.pl

Along the southern edge of the square stands the building of the former Jesuit college. Today it serves as the seat of the municipal authorities.

Imperial Castle ckzamek.pl

The last and youngest monarchical residence in Europe. Built in 1910 for German Emperor Wilhelm II, the castle now serves as a cultural centre.

Poznań International Fair mtp.pl

The largest industrial fair in Poland, featuring the country's biggest exhibition and conference infrastructure. e.g. the Earth Hall can accommodate nearly 2,000 people.

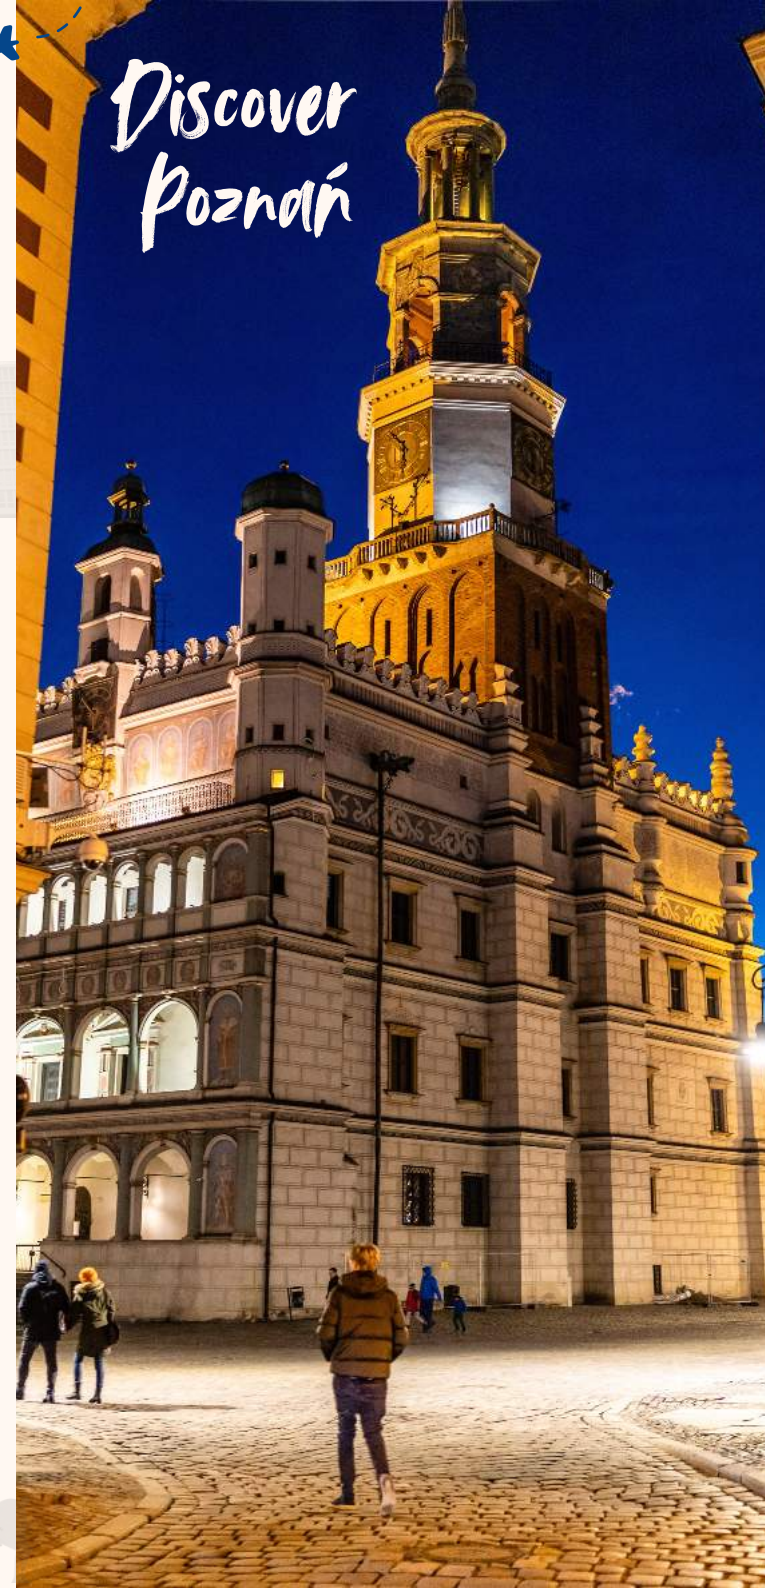

The Municipal Stadium eneastadion.pl

Enea Stadium, home to Lech Poznań football team, offers guided tours. It also serves as a venue for concerts and conferences.

UAM Collegium Minus – Adam Mickiewicz University amu.edu.pl

Due to its rich history, the university is traditionally ranked among Poland's most reputable institutions of higher education, a status consistently reflected in national rankings.

Discover Poznań